With that in mind, we designed our services to be both flexible and highly personalized. Agape caregivers help with the regular day-to-day activities of life, including:

- Cleaning and light housekeeping
- Providing companionship and friendly conversation
- Facility staffing/Hospital sitting

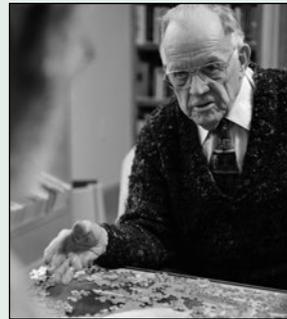

We also offer a free home conference at which time an Agape professional will help you thoroughly assess your individual needs and recommend appropriate services.

You can arrange for as little as two hours or as much as 24 hours of service a day. Whether you need short-term help or are looking for a long-term solution, we think you'll find Agape In-Home Care, Inc. is the answer.

Why is the home meeting so important?

The home meeting provides the opportunity to meet with a representative of Agape to ask questions and obtain professional assistance in assessing your individual needs.

It serves as a meeting ground for the family, the person needing care, and the Agape professional to fully explore all care requirements. Together a decision can be made as to which services would be most helpful and appropriate.

The home meeting also provides the Agape professional, who will be assigning a caregiver, greater insight into the personality, interests, needs and concerns of the individual.

Who can benefit from our services?

Agape In-Home Care, Inc. helps many people maintain their independent lifestyle.

We provide care to those confined to their homes because of long-term disabilities, and those recovering from a stroke, heart attack, surgery, or other serious illnesses.

Our services are an ideal solution for individuals who wish to remain in their own homes but are affected by arthritis, diminished eyesight, hearing loss, or other normal occurrences of the aging process.

Many people find all they need to continue living a healthy, secure and independent lifestyle is a little extra help with the day-to-day activities.

Often it is difficult for family members to provide all the assistance which may be needed. Full-time work schedules, distance from those needing care, and the demands of their own families are all contributing factors. That's where we can help.

Agape services are ideal for people who want to stay in their own home with their memories and cherished possessions, near their friends, church or synagogue, and in the familiar surroundings of their community. People who need some assistance and companionship on a regular basis, but who don't want their daily habits and routines interrupted.

With Agape, the important things stay the same. Individuals continue to enjoy the independence of living in their own home, receiving visitors and going out whenever they wish, as well as the pleasure of owning and caring for a pet.

Families are comforted knowing that a conscientious, trusted individual will be providing assistance on a regular basis, offering an extra measure of care, companionship and peace of mind.
